

INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTE FOR THE SOCIOLOGY OF LAW
INSTITUT INTERNACIONAL DE SOCIOLOGIE JURIDIQUE

Apdo. 28 - 20560 OÑATI
Gipuzkoa – Euskadi
España / Europa

WORKSHOP ON:

Cyber Deviance Cyber Crime: A Revolution in Socio-Legal Norms

Coordinator: Emilio Viano (President, International Society for Criminology)

28 – 29 May 2015

Preliminary programme

Thursday, 28 May 2015

- 09:15-11:00 Opening Remarks
Cyber: A History of a Prefix
Technology, Values and Crime: Tracking the Interface
Hacking, Spoofing and Cracking: Being Smart or Deviant?
- 11:00-11:30 Break
- 11:30-13:00 Cyber-deviance: who, when, why, and why not? Life-course
Cybercriminology
The Internet as a facilitator of traditional crime (e.g. fraud, money laundering, terrorism or offenses against the person, etc.)
Cyber Crime grows up: Carding, Escrow and the Dark Markets
- 13:00-14:30 Lunch break
- 14:30-16:00 Regulation of content-related crime (e.g. extreme pornography, child abuse images, hate speech, etc.) and the relationship with freedom of expression
Misuse of personal data and the right to online privacy
Cyber-bullying and Cyber-stalking: Are They as Serious as Their Offline Counterparts?
- 16:00-16:30 Break
- 16:30-18:00 Policing the Web
How much damage can a mouse do? Punishing Cyber Criminals
Information as High Value Currency: The Justifications for Spying

Hackers and Whistleblowers: Traitors or Patriots? The Social and Political Definition of Cyber Deviance

Friday, 29 May 2015

- 09:15-11:00 Transnational Crime in the Online Environment: The Flourishing of Global Criminality
- Bitcoins and the Political Economy of Crime: The New “Dollar” Threatening a State Monopoly or a Tool for Money Laundering and Tax Evasion?
- Your Life Just Got Hacked!: Examining The Effects Of Online Victimization On Offline Fear
- 11:00-11:30 Break
- 11:30-13:00 How Should the Law Think about Robots? Will Robotic Deviance & Crime Ever be Possible and Punishable?
- Confronting Automatic Law Enforcement: Combination of Sensor Systems with Law Enforcement Algorithms and Punishment Feedback Loops – The Changing Dynamics of Urban Justice
- Automatic Cyber Warfare: Stuxnet, Drones and Criminal Responsibility
- 13:00-14:30 Lunch break
- 14:30-16:00 The Role of Social Scientists in Identifying and Understanding Emerging Cyber Threats
- Human Dignity, Autonomy and Freedom in the Era of Universal Surveillance, Algorithms and Robotic Intelligence
- Cybernetics Leading to Punishment with Unprecedented Rigor: A Return to Merciless Puritanism?
- 16:00-16:30 Break
- 16:30-18:00 Implications of Social Science Theory & Research on Cybercrime Policies
- General Discussion
- Conclusions and Recommendations
- Concluding Remarks